Nationalisms and Identities among Indigenous Peoples
Case Studies from North America
Martina Neuburger and H. Peter Dörrenbächer (eds)
Contents

MARTINA NEUBURGER AND H. PETER DÖRRENBÄCHER
Introduction: Nationalisms and Identities among Indigenous Peoples 1

PART 1 Histories and Politics 13

JOHN GEORGE HANSEN
Decolonizing Indigenous Histories and Justice 15

LINDA SUE WARNER AND KEITH GRINT
War and Peace: Issues of Leadership in American Indian Communities 31

SANDRA BUSATTA
The Akwesasne Mohawk at the Margin of the State 47

PART 2 Experiences in Education 69

MIRANDA C. LABER
‘Planting the Seeds of Change’: Indigenous Education, Nation-Building and Democracy in the United States 71

HERMAN MICHELL
Transcending the Winter Time: The Legacy of Residential Schools and the Role of Indigenous Places of Higher Learning in an Era of Reconciliation 89
PUNYASHREE PANDA
To Be or Not To Be Native: Residential School, Official Status and Métis Women in Maria Campbell’s Halfbreed and Beatrice Culleton’s In Search of April Raintree

PART 3 Cultural Productions

KEVIN A. JOHNSON AND JOSEPH W. ANDERSON
The Native American Hip-Hop Nation: A Nationalist Movement for Sovereignty

BRIAN DE RUITER
The Empire Films Back: Constructing Identity and Resistance Through the Selective Films of Chris Eyre

PART 4 Comparisons

MONIKA LUDESCHER
The Rights of Indigenous Peoples in Latin America from International and Comparative Perspectives

CHRISTINA GOSCHENHOFER AND KATRIN SINGER
Mexican Indigeneities in Motion, Mexican Identities in Negotiation

ANNE C. UHLIG
The Notion of the Nation Compared: Deafhood and Indianness

Notes on Contributors

Index