hybrid qualifications: structures and problems in the context of european vet policy thomas deissinger, josef aff, alison fuller & christian helms jørgensen (eds)

peter lang
Table of Contents

Preface by the editors ............................................. 7

Part One
Findings from the Leonardo Innovation Transfer Project “Hybrid Qualifications – increasing the value of Vocational Education and Training in the context of Lifelong Learning”

JOSEF AFF, ELISABETH PASCHINGER
& JOHANNA RECHBERGER
The realisation of hybrid qualifications in Austria – structures, analysis, empirical findings ...................... 13

CHRISTIAN HELMS JØRGENSEN
Linking the dual system with higher education in Denmark – when strength becomes weakness ............ 53

GAYNA DA VEY & ALISON FULLER
Transcending the academic-vocational binary in England? – An exploration of the promise of hybrid qualifications ........................................... 79

THOMAS DEISSINGER, ROLAND WERN,
ROBIN HEINE & MARISKA OTT
Progression from VET into higher education via hybrid qualifications in Germany: context – policy – problem issues ....................................................... 111
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Part Two</th>
<th>Hybrid Qualifications in and outside Europe</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>DAVID RAFFE &amp; CATHY HOWIESON</td>
<td>Hybrid qualifications in a credit-based system: Scottish Higher National Certificates and Diplomas</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ALISON TAYLOR, BONNIE WATT-MALCOLM &amp; RANDOLPH WIMMER</td>
<td>‘Hybridity’ in two Canadian provinces: Blurring institutional boundaries</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PHILIPP GONON</td>
<td>Federal Vocational Baccalaureate: The Swiss way of ‘hybridity’</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PHILIPPE MÉHAUT</td>
<td>Hybrid or dual currency qualifications? – The French case</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JEROEN ONSTENK</td>
<td>Hybrid qualifications in the Netherlands: Vocational educational pathways into higher education as an obstacle course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ERICA SMITH</td>
<td>‘Qualifications for work and further learning’: The Australian approach to hybrid qualifications</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Part Three</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>THOMAS DEISSINGER, JOSEF AFF, ALISON FULLER &amp; CHRISTIAN H. JØRGENSEN</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

List of authors 277