Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements 7

Introduction 9
   The Graphic Novel: Definitions and Genealogies 12

Chapter 1: Social Realism: Historical and Political Contexts 25
   Twentieth-Century Political Realism 35
   The State and Graphic Novel Production 40
   Censorship 48

Chapter 2: Documentary 55
   Memory and Authenticity 58
   Visualising Memory 62
   Radical Methods, Radical Forms 66

Chapter 3: Depicting Childhood in Times of Crisis 73
   Satrapi’s Persepolis 73
   Surviving the Atomic Bombing in Nakazawa’s Barefoot Gen 89
   Spaces of Deprivation in Jimmy Corrigan 116

Chapter 4: Documenting Oppression in Sacco’s Palestine 121
   Methods of Visualisation and Documentation 125
   Realism Countering Mythologies 154

Chapter 5: Visualising Discrimination and Persecution 161
   A Pedagogy of Exile: Sebald’s Emigrants 161
   Documenting the Holocaust: Spiegelman’s Maus 168

Conclusion: Graphic Novels as Realism 195

Bibliography 201

Index 211