Leadership in Challenging Situations
Table of Contents

Harald Haas, Franz Kernic & Andrea Plaschke
Preface and Introduction: Leadership in Challenging Situations.................................9

James Warn, Alan Okros & Michael Cox
The Intellectual Challenges of Complexity in Contemporary Military Missions ..................................................................................23

Ruth Seifert
The German Bundeswehr and New Military Operations:
Gender and the Concept of ‘Innere Führung’ .................................................................67

Jan Willem Honig & Ilmari Käihkö
Challenges of Command: The Rise of the ‘Strategic Colonel’..........................................89

Heiko Biehl
Military Cooperation in Multinational Missions ..............................................................109

Harald Haas
Intercultural Challenges for European Armed Forces in International Operations ................................................................................................139

Hitoshi Kawano
Japan Self-Defence Force in Iraq – Commitment to International Peace and Leadership Challenges ............................................................161

Chiara Ruffa
What Kind of Military Leadership for what Kind of Operation? Assessing
‘Mission Command’ in Peace Operations and Counterinsurgencies..............................183
Camilla Kylin
Adaptability through Diversity? A Study of the Demands of Irregular Threats and Adaptability.................................................................195

Amira Raviv
Developing Senior Leaders: Challenges, Methodologies, and Dilemmas.........................203

Georg Ebner
Military Command and its Challenges in the 21st Century..............................................217

Jürgen Rose
Multicultural Tensions in International Peace Support Operations: Lessons from the German Bundeswehr..........................................................229

Walter Posch
Provoking an Agreement? The Hormuz Incident revisited...................................................267

Paul G. Ertl
Ethical Decision-making Processes in Challenging Situations..........................................277

Marc-André Boisvert
Leadership: An Annotated Bibliography...........................................................................289

Contributors.........................................................................................................................299