Contents

Introduction
(Wolfram Backert, Susan Block-Lieb, Johanna Niemi) ........................................... 7

Never too Small to Fail: Insolvency of Consumers as an International Concern
(Johanna Niemi) ........................................................................................................ 9

Regulation and Self-regulation in the Fight against Over-indebtedness in the Netherlands: A Socio–legal and Economic Analysis
(Nick Huls, Nadja Jungman) .................................................................................. 31

The New Swedish Debt Relief Act
(Annina Persson) ..................................................................................................... 55

Fourteen Years of Consumer Bankruptcy in Austria
(Georg E. Kodek) .................................................................................................... 67

South African Homeowners Are Not Protected against Various Interest Rates Hikes
(Michelle Kelly-Louw) .............................................................................................. 89

Punishing the Lender for Who’s Sake? Impacts of the New Case Law and Follow-ups to the 2006 Reform of the Consumer Credit Regulation in Japan
(Souichiroun Kozuka) .............................................................................................. 109

Unemployment and Over-indebtedness in Germany
(Michael Knobloch) .................................................................................................. 127

The Ultimate Victims of the Economic Crisis: A Portrait of Portuguese Overburdened Families
(Cláudia Abreu Lopes, Catarina Frade, Fernanda Jesus) ......................................... 147

Over-indebtedness, Health and Social Network
(Eva Münster, Ulrike Zier, Heiko Rüger, Stephan Letzel) ...................................... 163

The Role of Government as a Creditor of the Disadvantaged
(Stephanie Ben-Ishai, Saul Schwartz, Jeremy Barretto) ........................................ 181