Elites and Politics in Central and Eastern Europe (1848–1918)
Table of contents

Foreword ............................................................................................................................. 7
Acknowledgements ............................................................................................................ 21

Peter Urbanitsch,
Intellectual Elites and the Franchise for Representative Bodies on Local, Regional and State Levels in Cisleithania 1848–1914 ....................... 23

Franz Adlgasser,
Lawyers in the Austrian Parliament, 1848–1918. A Prosopographic Case Study ........................... 39

Luboš Velek,
The Czech Club in Prague: the Political Association as a Means to Political Mobilisation and the Legitimisation and Cultivation of Civil Elites in the 1870s.......................................................... 53

Jiří Šouša, Jiří Štaif,
The Social Question as a Focus of Interest for Political and Entrepreneurial Elites: Lands of the Bohemian Crown 1880–1914 .......... 81

Jiří Malíř,
The Moravian Diet and Political Elites in Moravia 1848–1918 ...................... 101

Lukáš Fasora,
Deutschliberal and Deutschnational. Continuity and Discontinuity in Local Politics and the Diet of Moravia 1880–1914 ....................... 129

Harald Binder,
Galicia’s Parliamentary Elites in the Transition to Mass Politics .................. 145

Mihai-Ștefan Ceausu,
Representation of the Romanian Political Elite in the Bukovina Diet (1861–1914) .................................................................................. 161

Map of Austria-Hungary (1867–1918) ............................................................. 173

Map of Hungary (1867–1918) ................................................................. 174

József Pap,
Problems in the Career Analysis of Hungarian Representatives in the Age of Dualism .......................................................... 175

András Cieger,
Interests and Strategies. An Investigation of the Political Elite of the Sub-Carpathian Region in the Age of Dualism (1867–1918) .......... 191
Table of contents

Alexandru Onojescu, Ovidiu Iudean, Vlad Popovici,
Preliminary Results of a Prosopographic Inquiry ............................................. 211

Judit Pál,
Representation of the Transylvanian Towns in the Hungarian Parliament and Town MPs after the Austro-Hungarian Compromise (1866–1875) .......... 225

Nicolae Bocșan,
The Romanian Political Elite in Transylvania between Militancy and Professionalisation ...................................................................................... 249

Silvia Marton,
Becoming Political Professionals. Members of Parliament in Romania
(1866–1914) ...................................................................................................... 267

List of Abbreviations ........................................................................................... 281

List of Contributors ............................................................................................ 283